

Communication Programs Summer 2023

The Sertoma-Schiefelbusch Communication Programs are a collaborative effort between the Lawrence Sertoma Club and the Schiefelbusch Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic at the University of Kansas. These programs bring children together to explore their world and improve their communication skills while participating in fun activities. The programs are staffed by students and faculty from the Schiefelbusch Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic.

3 Options to Choose From:

Move and Grow Summer Program is an early childhood summer program filled with outdoor movement, sensory, art and literacy activities. Open to all children ages 2-5.

Themes for this summer include Gardening Galore & Wacky Water Week

Reading Wizards: A Summer Literacy Program is an experience for children ages 6 to 10 who need additional reading support. Reading Wizards provides elementary reading and writing instruction within a fun, summertime environment. Participants will receive one-on-one and small group instruction, as well as arts and crafts, outdoor movement, and games. Each participant will have individual goals and a progress summary at the conclusion of the program.

CAL (Communication and Literacy) Summer Program is a unique 8-day experience for children who use augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) systems. CAL Summer Program includes language, literacy, and play activities designed to enhance participants' communication skills, facilitate friendships and social opportunities, and promote engagement with literacy in a fun and language-rich environment.
